Ministry to Youth and Young Adults is one of 11 diocesan ministries that provide opportunities to encounter God and offer all who seek Him a chance to deepen their spiritual lives, fostering a response to God's call to serve. Through the Catholic Ministry Appeal, these ministries will receive 30% of the total $9.5 million appeal goal to continue their good works. Through the Catholic Ministry Appeal, this group of ministries will receive 23%, of the total $9.5 million appeal goal to carry out their good works.

The Known Conference was the first Young Adult Conference in the Diocese of Saint Petersburg. With over 300 young adults who attended, participants had the opportunity to praise and worship, hear from dynamic speakers, meet new people in the community, and connect with various vendors and ministries from around the diocese.

With numerous young adult groups throughout the counties, all young adults (ages 18-39) are encouraged and welcomed to find a community near them.

"I see many young Catholics realizing that there's a lot of chaos in the world. Because of this, we need to come together, build the strength of our community, and stand firm against the cultural tides that challenge the Catholic faith," said Noah McLellan, a young adult in the Diocese of Saint Petersburg.
