Care of the Souls within the Diocese of St. Petersburg

“In directing and coordinating all the work of the diocesan agencies, the Bishop will keep in mind, as a general principle, that diocesan structures should always be at the service of the good of souls and that administrative demands should not take precedence over the care of persons. Therefore, he should see that the operation is smooth and efficient, avoiding all unnecessary complexity or bureaucracy, and always directed towards its proper supernatural end.”

Bishop Gregory L. Parkes **

Vicar General  - Monsignor Robert F. Morris

Chancellor for Administration **
Chief Operating Officer

For as in one body we have many parts, and all the parts do not have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ and individually parts of one another. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us exercise them: if prophecy, in proportion to the faith; if ministry, in ministering; if one is a teacher, in teaching; if one exhorts, in exhortation; if one contributes, in generosity; if one leads, do it with diligence; if one does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. (Romans 12:4-8)
